Man Charged with Aggravated Robbery Tuesday Morning in Northeast El Paso

Date & Time: Tuesday, November 22, 2016 @ 11:48 a.m.
Location: 5620 Dyer (Cash Store)
Arrested: 21-year old Lemar MARTIN of El Paso, TX

EL PASO, TEXAS: Officers and Investigators assigned to the El Paso Police Department's Northeast Regional Command Center/Tactical unit have arrested and charged a 21-year old El Paso man with Aggravated Robbery. The investigation revealed that 21-year old Lemar MARTIN entered the Cash Store (5620 Dyer) at 11:48 a.m., on Tuesday, November 22, 2016. MARTIN was wearing a ski mask when he entered the store and approached the clerks. He then pointed a handgun at the clerks and demanded that the clerks place money in a bag. MARTIN fled the store with a bag containing money from the store in a white vehicle that have been parked behind the store. Patrol officers and Tactical officers located the vehicle on Ft. Bliss. Investigators identified several items related to the Aggravated Robbery inside the vehicle. Ft. Bliss Criminal Investigation Division was notified. Investigators identified MARTIN as the individual responsible for this Aggravated Robbery and he was placed under arrest. Investigators recovered clothing, a handgun, and U.S. Currency as a result of this investigation. MARTIN was booked into the El Paso County Detention Facility on the Aggravated Robbery charge and an outstanding Municipal Court warrant. His bonds totaled $100,249.00.
